

Name _____

Elements Review

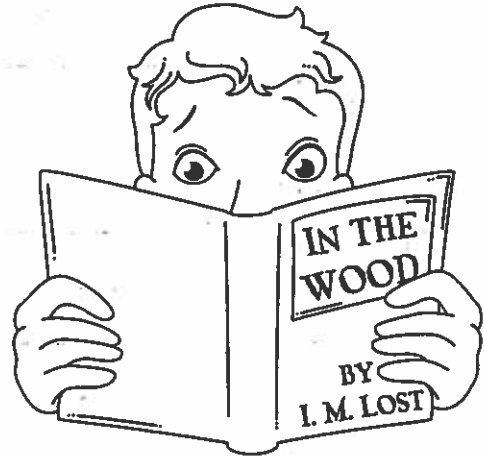

Read each sentence below, and then identify which element of literature it describes. Choose an element from the box below, and write it in the blank.

theme	characterization	mood	tone	conflict
foreshadowing	style	setting	point of view	plot

1. The story gave me goose bumps from fear and suspense.

2. The story takes place in Boston during the late 1700s.

3. It is the story of a girl who gets lost, learns important lessons as she tries to get home, and eventually returns home safely.

4. You can tell as you read the book that the author strongly supports providing scholarships for deserving students.

5. The story is told through the dog's eyes. _____

6. The story teaches that patience is an important quality. _____

7. We know that the main character is selfish at the beginning of the story because she completely ignores all the misery around her, and the other characters frequently describe her as "stingy" and "greedy."

8. The approaching storm signaled that the character's future was about to take a turn for the worse.

9. The main character struggles with his fears and faces many dangers in order to rescue his pet.

10. The author uses simple vocabulary and rhyming words that appeal to young readers.

11. Together all the events in the story teach that honesty is the best policy.

12. The story takes place on Mars in the year 2583. _____