

Chapter 8 Review Questions

When answering the questions below, you must quote directly from the text whenever possible.

1. The boys now believe that the beast exists, and that they have 'proof'. In your opinion, how will this change things on the island?
 2. Jack says to his hunters: "Ralph thinks you're cowards, running away from the boar and the beast. And that's not all." Did Ralph really say this? Why would Jack lie?
 3. When Jack calls a vote to get rid of Ralph as chief, none of the boys raise their hands. Why do you think that they don't respond, yet sneak off and join Jack later?
 4. Why do the boys leave the pig's head on a stick in the forest?
 5. Explain the importance of the 'Lord of the Flies'.
 6. In your own words, explain what the Lord of the Flies says to Simon.
-

Chapter 8 Review Questions

When answering the questions below, you must quote directly from the text whenever possible.

1. The boys now believe that the beast exists, and that they have 'proof'. In your opinion, how will this change things on the island?
 2. Jack says to his hunters: "Ralph thinks you're cowards, running away from the boar and the beast. And that's not all." Did Ralph really say this? Why would Jack lie?
 3. When Jack calls a vote to get rid of Ralph as chief, none of the boys raise their hands. Why do you think that they don't respond, yet sneak off and join Jack later?
 4. Why do the boys leave the pig's head on a stick in the forest?
 5. Explain the importance of the 'Lord of the Flies'.
 6. In your own words, explain what the Lord of the Flies says to Simon.
-

Chapter 8 Review Questions

When answering the questions below, you must quote directly from the text whenever possible.

1. The boys now believe that the beast exists, and that they have 'proof'. In your opinion, how will this change things on the island?
 2. Jack says to his hunters: "Ralph thinks you're cowards, running away from the boar and the beast. And that's not all." Did Ralph really say this? Why would Jack lie?
 3. When Jack calls a vote to get rid of Ralph as chief, none of the boys raise their hands. Why do you think that they don't respond, yet sneak off and join Jack later?
 4. Why do the boys leave the pig's head on a stick in the forest?
 5. Explain the importance of the 'Lord of the Flies'.
 6. In your own words, explain what the Lord of the Flies says to Simon.
-

Chapter 8 Review Questions

When answering the questions below, you must quote directly from the text whenever possible.

1. The boys now believe that the beast exists, and that they have 'proof'. In your opinion, how will this change things on the island?
 2. Jack says to his hunters: "Ralph thinks you're cowards, running away from the boar and the beast. And that's not all." Did Ralph really say this? Why would Jack lie?
 3. When Jack calls a vote to get rid of Ralph as chief, none of the boys raise their hands. Why do you think that they don't respond, yet sneak off and join Jack later?
 4. Why do the boys leave the pig's head on a stick in the forest?
 5. Explain the importance of the 'Lord of the Flies'.
 6. In your own words, explain what the Lord of the Flies says to Simon.
-